Flagship Art Prize Entries on Show

The 2016 Jacaranda Acquisitive Drawing Award (JADA) - the flagship drawing prize of the Grafton Regional Gallery - is on show at Coffs Harbour Regional Gallery until Saturday, March 3 2018.

With a $30,000 first prize and other prizes to the value of $10,000, the JADA is one of Australia's richest drawing awards and has built an impressive collection of contemporary Australian drawing at the Grafton Regional Gallery.

"The winner of the 2016 JADA was Adam Cusack with his drawing 'In plain sight'," said Jo Besley, Coffs Harbour Regional Gallery Curator.

"This was particularly impressive as 2016 was a record year for the JADA, which attracted a total of 568 entries from 418 artists from right across Australia. The 47 finalists make up the current JADA exhibition.

"Judge Ken Done said Adam's drawing impressed him with its combination of technical skill and concept. 'In plain sight', a charcoal on paper drawing, shows found objects presented in provocative ways. The unrelated objects are assembled to create relationships that challenge the viewer's perception of the original items."

Alongside Adam Cusack's drawing, Ken Done also selected a further four drawings to be acquired through the prize.

Betty Greenhatch's 'Contemporary China' - pencil and gold ink on paper - is a contemporary interpretation of a Chinese willow-pattern dinner plate.

Jane Grealy's 'Maria's Garden, From the Back', is a detailed look at a suburban garden as seen by the artist over her back fence.

'Becoming' by Sandra Kiris looks at material and non-material realities and Catherine O'Donnell's 'Urban Dwelling Series #9' focuses on urban architecture.

'How to raise a siren' - a hand-drawn film by Todd Fuller - won the JADA Packers' Choice prize.

Entry is free to the exhibition and Coffs Harbour Regional Gallery is open Tuesday - Saturday, 10am to 4pm. For more information go to www.coffsharbour.nsw.gov.au/gallery

The Jacaranda Acquisitive Drawing Award is presented every two years by the Grafton Regional Gallery. The 2016 JADA is touring to eight venues across Queensland and New South Wales.

Sign Up for the Big Clean Up

Clean Up Australia Day 2018 is on Sunday, March 4, and there's still plenty of time to register to take part.

"Clean Up Australia Day is the perfect opportunity for us all to show how much we all love Coffs Harbour by helping clean our local parks, reserves, roadsides and waterways," said Coffs Harbour Mayor, Councillor Denise Knight.

"Right through from Toormina, out to Coramba and Bucca and up to Woolgoolga, people have already signed on to grab their gloves and bags and tackle litter in our environment on March 4.

"There are loads of options. You can clean up the beach, or your street, a nearby park or oval, or even take your kayak to tackle litter in our creeks.

"The sites are all different, but the aims are the same - to clean up our greatest resource, Australia."

At last November's Sustainable Living Festival, 122 locals collected 7,564 pieces of rubbish from Coffs Creek as part of the Seaside Scavenge. A whopping 65% of this litter was plastic.

Last year, our region outdid itself with 24 registered Clean Up Australia Day sites. So why not come along this year? It's fun, easy and a great family day out.

- Community Clean Up Australia Day will be held on Sunday, 4th March.
- Clean Up for Businesses will be held on Tuesday, 27th February.
- Clean Up For Schools will be held on Friday, 2nd March.

Join an existing site, or get together with friends, family, your church, community garden or sporting group and help keep your local oceans, parks, playing fields and nature reserves beautiful and clean.

Clean Up Australia Day participants are advised to wear sunscreen, a hat and closed shoes - and don't forget your reusable and refillable bottle of water.

To join a registered site, or create a new one, visit www.cleanupaustaliaday.org.au/ or call Coffs Harbour City Council on 6648 4675.
