Growers Market in Harbour Drive

The revitalisation work in City Square has commenced and we are excited that the popular Coffs Coast Growers Market is able to continue trading during this time. Every Thursday between 8am and 2.30pm shoppers will be able to find their favourite stalls – with all their favourite growers, producers and makers – located on both sides of Harbour Drive, close to City Square.

Local produce picked fresh for the market will be in abundance; sourdough bread and gourmet salamis will be side-by-side to tempt your taste buds. Get your greens with Abundant Vitality's micro-greens, sprouts and salad mixes. There are seasonal plants to keep 'green thumbs' happy, alongside fresh-cut fragrant roses – the perfect gift! Tigi from Shawa East African will be serving her delicious curries for lunch along with Papa Pasty vegan pasties and Double Tang Burmese food.

Blushing Blueberries is back and has delicious new condiments and jams for you to taste; and Bakarindi have award-winning bushfood delights, from Finger Lime Pickle to Davidson Plum Chilli Sauce. Allan from Coffs Coast Honey has local varietals for honey lovers – be quick as their creamed honey has been walking out the door!

Come down this Thursday, take a stroll along Harbour Drive and support our local businesses. Updates on stall locations can be found on the @coffscoastgrowers Facebook page. For more information and stall holder enquiries, contact our Market Coordinator on 02 6648 4033.

Are you part of a local club, society or organisation with a great idea to improve an existing community facility or set up a whole new project, but need an injection of funds?
